Dear Professor Lederberg:

I'm sorry to be so late in answering your letter of December 21, but we have been unusually busy because of the newspaper strike and our special year-end news shows.

I discovered that due to the large number of important news stories that developed on December 12, Wilfrid Fleisher's tape of the Nobel prize ceremonies was not used on the WORLD TONIGHT show. Unfortunately, since it was not used, it has been erased and I am unable to comply with your request.

I'm sorry to have been of so little help.

Sincerely,

Vickie Miller
